DETAILED ACTION

The amendment filed October 23, 2003 and the remarks presented therewith have been carefully considered. However, they are not deemed to be fully persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. More specifically, while the specification, as now amended in paragraph 0034, broadly sets forth an indicator means, there is no disclosure of how this indicator means can indicate the "condition" of the latch means based on the position of the latch holes.
3. Claims 1-3, 5-7, and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The last three lines of claims 1 and 15 render these claims confusing in that it is unclear how a single latch key can engage two latch holes.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3652

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 1-3, 5, 6, 8-10, and 12, as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the admitted prior art shown in Figures 1-3 of the instant application in view of Muka et al. (U.S. Patent # 5,607,276).

The prior art assembly shown in Figures 1-3 of the instant application contains all of the structural limitations as broadly as recited in the above claims except the latch means being linearly actuatable and operable when engaged linearly by a latch key.

However, the patent to Muka et al. (5,607,276) shows a linear actuator (192) in Figs. 13-15 for linearly moving latch keys (194) to open and close locking tab assemblies (200-210).

Accordingly, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to replace the rotating disk actuators of the prior art assemblies shown in Figures 1-3 of the instant application with linear actuators similar to that shown in the Muka et al. ('276) patent as an alternative yet functionally equivalent means of driving the latch means.

In response to applicant's remarks it is pointed out that the Muka et al. ('276) embodiment shows two latch holes (186) for linearly engaging latch keys (194). Further, the prior art assembly shown in Figs. 1-3 of the instant application shows two locking tabs (20a, 20b and 22a, 22b) on opposing sides of a cover member.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 13 and 14 are allowed.
8. Claims 7 and 15-17 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Specification

9. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it contains legal phraseology such as "means" in lines 4 and 5 which should be avoided. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Drawings

10. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: "24a" and "24b". A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Art Unit: 3652

11. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "indicator means", as recited in claim 11, must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Conclusion

12. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
